

BEGINNER2. LESSON #44. LA CARTE ROUTIÈRE

- Je conduis. Toi, tu prends la carte routière.
- Ca marche !
- Quelle direction ?
- Il faut déjà sortir de la ville. Suis le panneau « TOUTES DIRECTIONS ».
- Oui... ensuite ?
- Il faut chercher la N152 en direction de Blois.
- La voici.
- Chambord devrait être indiqué.
45 minutes plus tard...
- Aucune indication. J'étais pourtant sûre que...
- Une bonne idée de cadeau pour l'année prochaine : un GPS.

TRANSLATION

- I'm driving. You take the map.
- Deal !
- Which way ?
- First you'll have to leave the city. Follow the « TOUTES DIRECTIONS » sign.
- Yes... next ?
- We have to look for the N152. Direction Blois.
- Here it is.
- Chambord should be indicated.
45 minutes later...
- No sign. I was sure...
- A good present idea for next year : a GPS.

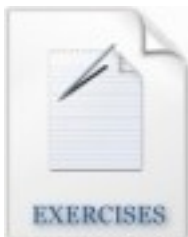

N or RN is for Route Nationale.

Conduire : to drive.
Carte (fém.) : map.
Suivre : to follow.
Direction (fém.) : way, direction.
TOUTES DIRECTIONS : ALL DIRECTIONS.
Indiquer : to indicate.
Idée (fém.) : idea.

Not really far from Paris is a really nice region that was very prized for its climate and its beauty by French kings. They built there a lot of impressive castles that we call « les Châteaux de la Loire ». It is near Blois and Tours. Chambord is one of these great castles.

Translate in French :

1. I like driving.
2. We are looking for N7.
3. Follow the sign « All directions ».
4. We are lost !

Perdu : lost.